MARITAL HISTORY

POLICY STATEMENTS ON DIVORCE AND REMARRIAGE Ruling as of August 2002

No applicant whose former spouse is living, or whose spouse's former spouse is living, shall be considered eligible for ministerial credentials except in cases where the divorce occurred because of the infidelity of the former spouse (Matthew 19:9), or the divorce occurred prior to initial conversion (2 Corinthians 5:17) or due to abandonment by an unbelieving spouse (1 Corinthians 7:15). Conversion is interpreted as that point in time when one makes a public commitment to Christ, followed by a consistent Christian lifestyle. In no case shall this provision apply to one who once walked with Christ, but who later divorced and/or remarried while living in a backslidden condition.

Whenever the applicant and/or spouse has a prior marriage, the applicant is asked to complete a set of forms concerning divorce and remarriage for each prior marriage. The applicant and spouse will be interviewed by the administrative bishop at a time and location set by the administrative bishop. With the recommendation of the administrative bishop and State Council, the marital forms are to be submitted to the International Executive Committee for consideration. When an applicant has been approved by the International Executive Committee and has been given clearance from a national criminal background check, the applicant may be given the materials to begin the licensing process.
